

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDES

■ Our picks for the bookshelf
Page 14

■ Girly presents for the little ones
Pages 25-28

Mets ink K-Rod to 3-year, $37M contract
Page 36

Oprah: I weigh 200 and I'm embarrassed
Page 12

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2008

amNewYork | 25

HOLIDAY gift guide '08

Find something for everyone on your list • Editor: Perrie Samotin (psamotin@am-ny.com)

Gifts for gals

BY LINDA PERNEY
Special to amNewYork

What to get the baby, kid or tween girl in your life? Does she swoon for a doll? Or does she die for a brand-new bike? Here, gifts for girls from the tiniest toddler to the most sophisticated tween.

American Girl Dolls, $105 each, americangirl.com
609 Fifth Ave.,
212-371-2220

Blonde, blue-eyed Kit Kittredge is growing up in 1934 during America's Great Depression. Ruthie Smithens, her best friend, is the newest doll to join American Girl's line of books, dolls and accessories.

Rebelle bag, $35, fao.com

Rebelle bags are a must-have for tweens. This one – with its appliquéd silver hearts and glittery rhinestones – zips apart to share with a BFF.

Bear with a heart, $18, bloomingdales.com

Purchase of this cuddlesome bear benefits Musicians on Call, a nonprofit organization that brings music to patients in hospitals around the country.

Abbey Road T, $44, bloomingdales.com

Beatlemania strikes again in the form of a classic pink tee that's part of Bloomie's Beatles collection. Sizes 7-16.

Tea set, $25, pbkids.com

This sweet set from Pottery Barn Kids is made from recycled milk containers, making it as eco-friendly as it is kid-friendly.

Girl Tech Stylin' Studio, $59.99, toysrus.com

Using their pictures and computer software, girls can make themselves over – and over and over again.

What's cooking?, $95, citibabes.com

For the girl who really wants to try her hand at cooking, this cookie-making set makes learning sweet.

Juicy Couture Charm Bracelet, $35, nordstrom.com

This chic, mini open-link bracelet comes with a pretty puffed heart – a perfect choice for the girl who loves anything and everything Juicy.