Check out this awesome site Citibabes they are hosting a concert with Melissa Green January 21 at 5:30pm. I wish we had a trendy site like this for us Arizonians 😊 We know you New Yorkers are just too trendy to keep up with 😊 If you'd like to attend RSVP on their site. The concert is FREE you just can't beat that! So hit the city and enjoy the music.

Details: Come sing and play with renowned children's musician Melissa Green! Escape from the cold and bring your little one to Citibabes' indoor playspace to sing along and dance with nursery school teacher turned musician Melissa Green. Melissa will be singing songs from her brand new album, Round and Round. Come dance the night away to some upbeat interactive family-folk music!

More information on Melissa Green is available via www.greencirclemusic.com.
